Opening Slated for Artist's Sales Gallery

A unique business enterprise initiated and run by artists will open its doors Sunday. It is the Artists' Sales Gallery Cooperative, a non-profit art gallery, featuring paintings, prints, sculpture, ceramics and jewelry. The gallery is located at 121 South Pacific Ave. with an entrance on Harbor Drive.

Recognizing the need in the South Bay area for facilities for the sale of moderately priced art work, these artists have formed a producers' marketing cooperative to sell their work. Incorporating as a non-profit organization, the artists themselves will run the gallery by contributing equally of time and money.

For the past month they have busily turned an ordinary store into an attractive art gallery. Gene Bruno, gallery manager, says, "Residents of the South Bay area should feel free to come in and browse any time. There will be a great variety of art work on continual display."

Members of the co-op gallery include Vicki Feldon, president; John Perkins, vice-president and business manager; Catherine Fels, Alex and Janet Parlova, Al Bailey, Arnold Cowan, Lucy Meighan, Gladys Bruchez, Alan Scharf, Don Murphy, Bob Neathery, Elsa Nelson, Dale Sexton, Andy Bondy, Edythe Kerr, Jane Brennan, Harvey Ramsey, Alice Pacht, Natalie Brown, Hedwig Brenner, Marian Cummings, Tony Gomez, Erika Muhl and Morgan Thieme.

Gallery hours will be Tuesday through Friday, 5 to 9 p. m., and Saturday and Sunday, 1 to 9 p. m.

Hawaiian Style Installation Held by Gateway PTA Council Recently

Dressed in gaily colored muu mus, festooned with brilliant leis and wearing an exotic hibiscus blossom behind the left ear, the "Mamas in the Muu Muu" created a sensation when they sang and danced at the Gateway Council PTA Installation meeting held in the auditorium of the Retail Clerks' Union Headquarters in Harbor City.

Presidents of the nine local PTAs directed by Mrs. H. G. Croom, council president put on the program. "We're Going to a Huuki Lau" had real Hawaiian ukelele accompaniment by Mrs. John Kapu, president of Phineas Banning High School PTA. The other selections were "Ballin' the Jack" and "Thanks for the Memories" with parody words adapted to the council. Community singing was led by Mrs. Harry T. Nishimoto.

Members of the council voted to send $200 to the Milk and Lunch Program for Undernourished Children. The net proceeds of the International "Ncheon, $150, was added to this sum.

Tables of the units were decorated in a holiday motif. The council table featured the "Fourth of July" and the checks for the Lunch and Milk Program were enclosed in a giant firecracker that was presented to council guest, Mrs. J. A. Major, Fourth Vice-president of Los Angeles Tenth District, CCPT, Inc.

Other council presidents seated at the head table were Mmes. C. N. Peterson, Gardena-Wilmington; Harry G. Foat, Jr., Long Beach; San Pedro; and Joseph Gallegos, Southwest. Council president-elect included Mmes. James T. Gayer, Avalon and Harry Bay, Gardena. Joseph Gallegos, mens' participation chairman was also a council guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallegos installed the officers for 1959-60 using a "timely" theme of small mirror clock faces. As Mrs. Gallegos charged the officers with their duties, "Joe" pinned the ribbon-looped timepieces on the inductees.

New presidents installed with the officers were Mmes. Harry G. Foat, Jr., Dana Jr. High; Leland Van Buren, Fleming Jr. High; E. N. Reese, Gardena High; Glenn R. Stokes, Peary Jr. High; Joel Steele, San Pedro High; Glen T. Mullin, S. M. White Jr. High.

Second year presidents are: Mmes. John Kapu, Banning; David P. Goolsby, Narbonne; Glade Murchison, Wilmington Jr. High and E. G. Croom, the council president.

Officers who will be serving with Mrs. Croom are Mmes. Waldo E. Martois, first vice-president; Harry T. Nishimoto, second vice-president; Joseph B. Butler, secretary; Lee Speirs, treasurer; Oscar Smith, auditor; George D. Weeks, historian and Arthur C. Akerson, parliamentarian.

State Board members spotted in the audience were Mmes. Laurence B. Martin, director of public welfare and Daniel J. Dailey, character and spiritual chairman.

Other program features included the historian's report by Mrs. John Blackmon and the presentation to the president of the award-winning press record book by Mrs. D. W. Ten Eyck.
